ANNUAL RECORD OF EVENTS AT LOUISIANA POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE
RUSTON, LOUISIANA

dedication

In the belief that the progress and the character of an institution is measured directly by the calibre of its students, the staff of the 1949 Lagniappe has tried to present a composite and well-rounded picture of campus life during the 1948-49 academic year.

The myriad activities of Tech, both in the classes and on the campus, have been recorded for the benefit, both now and in the future, of every student.

Compiling the Lagniappe on the assumption that this year will be remembered chiefly as one of rapid progress, the staff has attempted to include a segment from every phase of campus life.

Aware of the fact that ours is an obligation to bring to the students an annual as representative as possible, the editors have sought to reach out and capture the spirit of the student body — and it is to them, rather than to an individual, that this volume is dedicated.

The most popular building on the campus is Keeny Hall, above, which houses the post office, administration offices, and classrooms. At right, A. C. Schiro and Dorothy Lennard buy tickets for a Tech Theater play at a booth located in the lobby of Keeny.

Just about the busiest place on the campus is Bogard Hall, above, where future engineers gain their knowledge. Over the steps at right, many students have traveled into Bogard for their classes in algebra, physics, calculus, engineering, and other mathematical courses.

Here is where women students learn about the scientific process of home-making. At the right, two students study a bulletin board displaying home economics news.

facing west proudly symbolizes the physical

Thatcher Hall, below, is commonly referred to by its occupants as Sophomore Hall, a dormitory for men. To the right is pictured an entrance to the building.

A. E. Phillips Elementary School Building, above. Two preparatory students at right are depicted while in deep concentration, a trait taught them by future teachers training at Tech.

The newest addition to Tech, when completed, will be the modern girls' dormitory, shown below in an architect's drawing. Capable of housing 121 women students, the dormitory is being constructed adjacent to Aswell hall. Construction, started in the summer of 1948, is going forward at a rapid pace.

Fine Arts

This section, appearing in the Lagniappe for the first time, is not complete. Many more worthwhile attractions have been sponsored than could have been covered by the staff of the Lagniappe. However, with the hope of at least presenting the high spots of this school year's programs, a number of events well worth remembering are shown.

Romeo and Juliet

The Tech Theatre Players opened their four-night run of "Romeo and Juliet" on December 6, with the title roles enacted by Lester Snyder and Mary Frances Manry.

Others in the cast included James McFadden as Benvolio; Jacque Norman as Mercutio, and Shirley Gibson as Juliet's nurse.

Robert Shaw, with his 32-voice collegiate choral and chamber music ensemble, afforded Techsters one of the first bright spots in the concert season when they were presented here on October 27. The choral, making its first national tour, charmed the students with selections from early American pioneer composers and with some of the well known show tunes.

Paul Draper and Larry Adler, with their unusual presentation of comedy and classicism, made their first appearance here on March 1. Playing at Tech following the close of their annual season in New York, the famous pair offered a well received program of classic harmonica music with dance adaptations.

Above: The Dallas Symphony orchestra, one of the leading symphonic groups in the nation and a season's feature on the Louisiana Tech Concert Association's booking. Under the direction of Antal Dorati, the orchestra presented two performances at Tech on January 19.

Below: Spike Jones and a sprinkling of his cohorts, who set Howard Auditorium reverberating on the afternoon and night of February 2 in two different presentations.

"The Glass Menagerie"

"The Glass Menagerie," Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer Prize-winning drama, was presented in the Little Theater on March 8, 9, 10, 11, by the Tech Theater Players. Starring roles were enacted by Betty Jo Sheppard, Margaret Fisher, Douglas Murphy, and Mabry Figures.

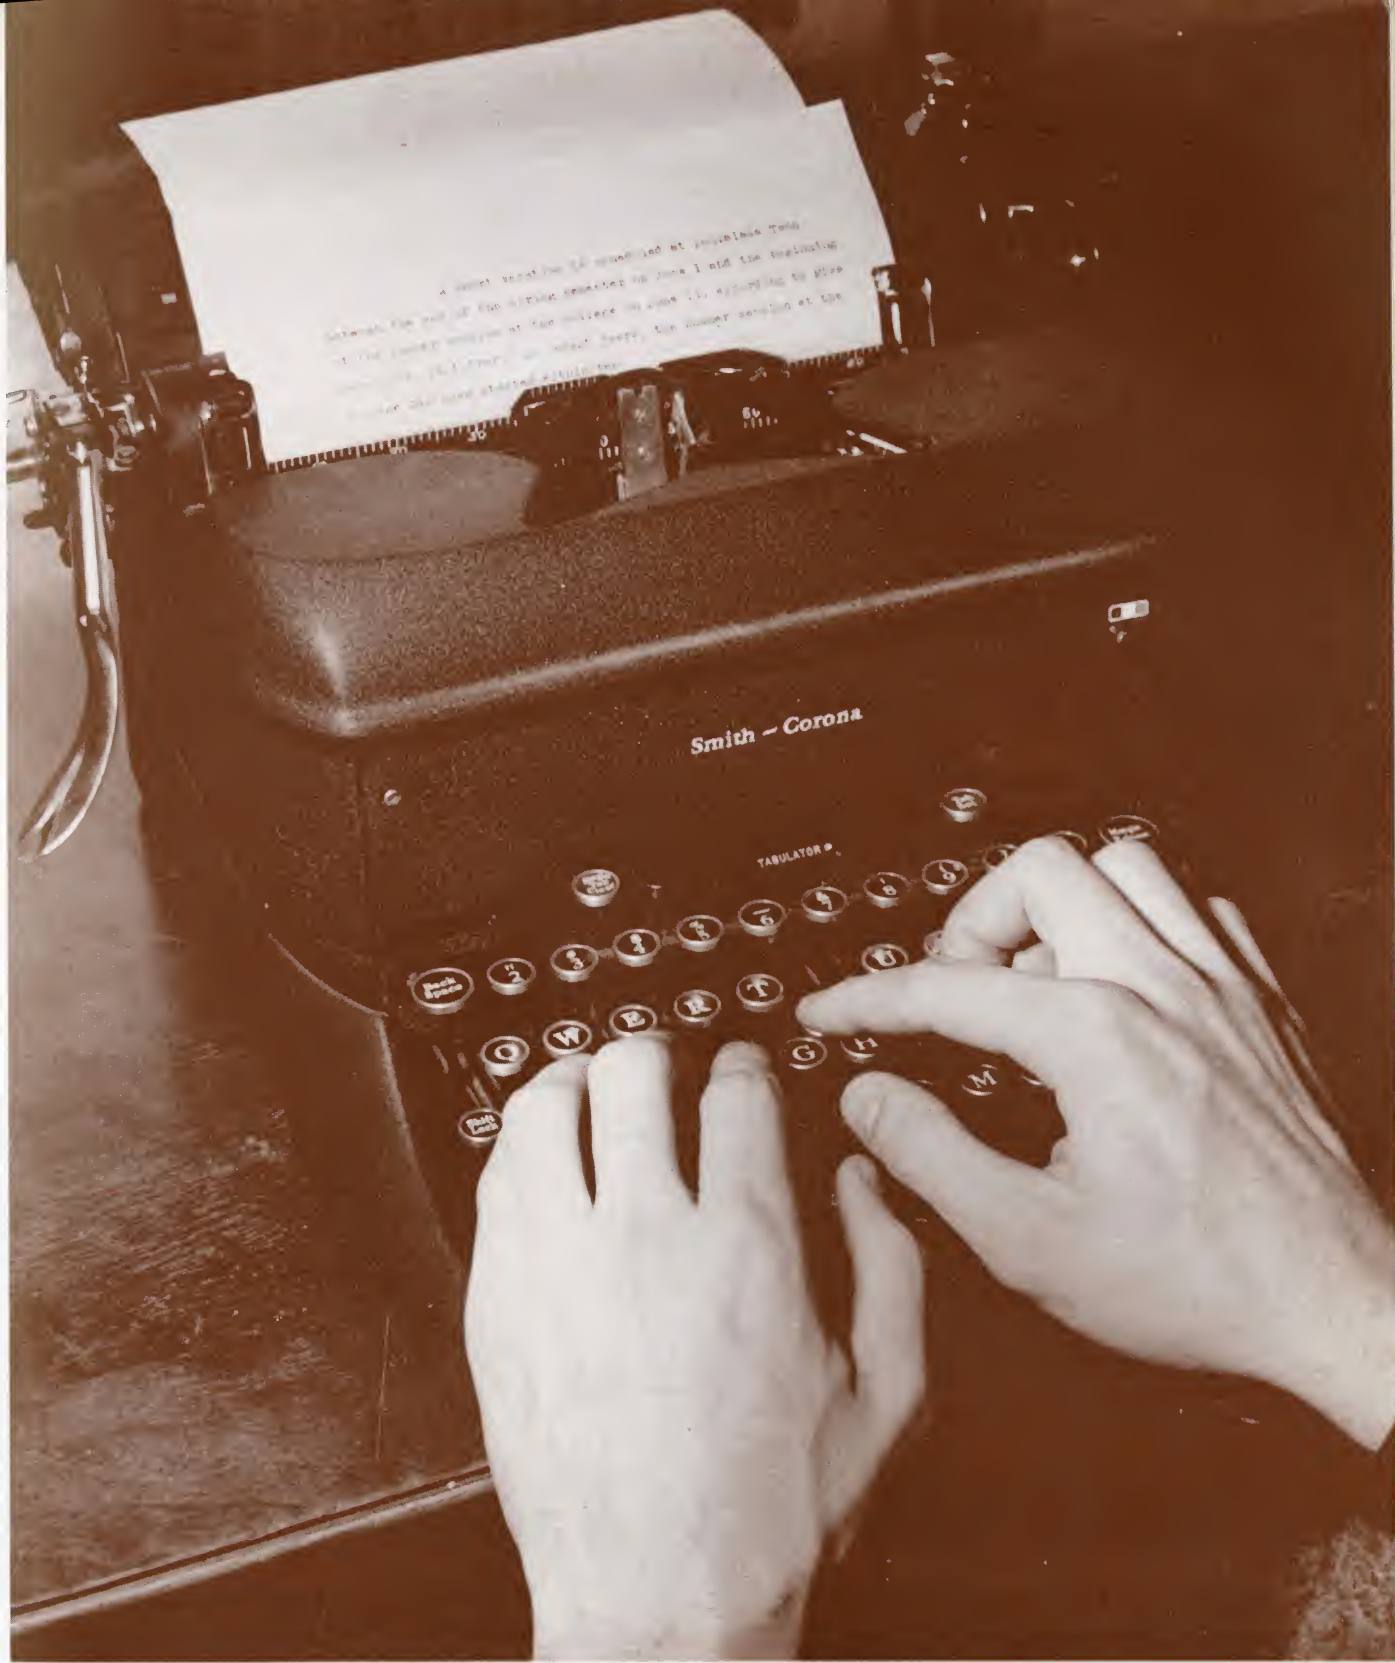

"The Barber of Seville"

Other well-known operatic stars in the cast included Val Patacchi, Emily Kalter, Frank Capelli, Walter Blazer and Paul Breisach.

The 1949 Lagniappe

With temporary plans drawn up as far back as the summer of '48, the 1949 Lagniappe has been a night and day job for the staff for almost a year. The introduction of a Fine Arts section and a remodification of the traditional-style Snapshots section has been made in an effort to give the students a more attractive annual.

TECH 20, HOWARD PAYNE 0

Opening the 1948 football season here on Saturday night, September 18, the Tech Bulldogs trimmed the Howard Payne Yellow Jackets of Brownwood, Texas, 20-0.

Appearing in better physical condition than their Texas conference foes, the Bulldogs displayed a fleet array of back-field talent to the fans. Particularly outstanding were three left halfbacks, Joe Rabb, James Bres, and Jimmy Harrison. Harrison hit pay dirt twice for the Techmen and Rabb carried the ball for the Bulldogs' third score.

With most of their offensive plays broken up before they could get underway, the closest the Yellow Jackets ever came to scoring was when they drove to the Tech 11 yard line early in the first quarter.

TECH 17, BRADLEY UNIVERSITY 14

With the educated toe of Joe Michael spelling the margin of victory for the Bulldogs, the Tech eleven defeated the Bradley University Braves of Peoria, Illinois, by a score of 17-14 here on September 27. Michael chalked up the winning points early in the first period with a 25-yard field goal.

Among the standouts in the first meeting of the two teams, generally conceded to be one of the best games of the season, were linesmen Jack Kelly and Rudolph Smith and guards Ed Stassi and Melvin Barney. Tech picked up 204 yards on the ground while holding the Bradley Braves to only 64.

TECH 13, AUBURN 13

Displaying a second-half powerhouse, the Tech Bulldogs came from behind to lead the Auburn Tigers briefly in the fourth quarter before the tilt ended in a 13-13 deadlock. Playing before a homecoming crowd of 12,000 at Auburn, the Tech defensive work ground the Tigers to a halt, allowing the Alabama team only 68 yards rushing and 12 yards by the aerial route during the second half.

Leo Sanford, Center, started the Techmen rolling when he intercepted a pass in the third period and raced for a touchdown, which was called back on a clipping penalty. Arnold Matthews, halfback, provided the sparking run of the game when he intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards for a score, which put the Bulldogs in a temporary lead.

TECH 33, UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON 40

The Houston University Cougars took advantage of three Bulldog miscues and pushed across three rapid touchdowns in the final period, nosing out the Techmen, 40-33, and marking up the first defeat of the season for the fleet-footed Bulldogs.

In their initial encounter, the two teams buckled down early to a see-saw game which saw the lead change so often even the officials became confused.

Long running plays and fast passes characterized the game, which was played at Houston. Turning in an exceptional performance for the Tech team were Joe Rabb, Lindsey Aucoin, Jimmy Harrison and Arnold Matthews, who led the Tech ball carriers in the game by turning in 89 yards rushing in eight attempts.

Dipping into the Gulf States Conference for the first time, the Bulldogs won over the hapless Wildcats of Louisiana College, 21-7. The Techsters passed their way to victory, with Arnold Matthews scoring first early in the game when he tagged an end-zone pass from Jimmy Harrison.

After hitting pay dirt again in the third quarter on a pass from Joe Rabb to Tony Cefalu, the Bulldogs took to the land route to round the game off. Jack Brittain plowed around the end for the final tally of the game. The Canines amassed 16 first downs to the Wildcats' 6.

Playing in the annual State Fair game at Shreveport, the Bulldogs effectively deflated the Demon's ego with Joe Michael's 29-yard field goal in the third quarter. Tied 7-7 at halftime, the game, watched by more than 12,000 fans, reached a climax when Michael booted the pigskin between the uprights for his second game-winning field goal of the 1948 season.

Jimmy Harrison, leading ground gainer in the Conference, scored the only touchdown for Tech when he went around his own right end from the five yard line. Michael's field goal was set up by Rudolph Smith, who recovered a Demon fumble on the NSC eight yard line.

TECH 19, SOUTHWESTERN 13

Forced to go all out in the fourth quarter to beat the battling Lions of Southeastern Louisiana College, the Tech Bulldogs maintained their lead in the Gulf State conference by shading the downstaters, 19-13, in the homecoming classic here. Anold Matthews, right halfback, scored all three touchdowns in the Southeastern tilt.

Trailing 13-6 at halftime, and knotted 13-all in the third quarter, the Techmen forged ahead for the first time late in the fourth quarter when Joe Rabb, Bobby Aillet, and A. C. Schiro worked the ball down to the enemy's 17 yard line. Matthews ripped off the needed yardage for a touchdown.

TECH 20, MEMPHIS STATE 14

Breaking a deadlock in the last minute of the game, the Tech Bulldogs trimmed the Tigers of Memphis State, 20-14, here Thanksgiving day, ending the local football season.

Matthews, Harrison and Schiro pushed over the scores for the Bulldogs, with Joe Michael adding the extra points. The crowd, diminished by the Thanksgiving absence of many of the students, watched as Tech's last minute bid for victory gathered speed in the waning 50 seconds of the game. Trailing 13-14, the Bulldogs marched from the Tigers' 47 to the 27 yard line. Schiro then tore ahead to the three, from where Matthews went around left end to give Tech the victory.

Games Not Shown

LOUISIANA TECH 24, SOUTHWESTERN 14

The Tech Bulldogs picked up their third straight conference win when they downed the Southwestern Louisiana eleven 24-14 before a homecoming crowd of 8,000 at Lafayette. Outstanding players included Carrell Dowies, A. C. Schiro, and Jimmy Harrison.

LOUISIANA TECH 6, MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN 20

The Southerners kept the fleet Tech backfield men bottled up during the entire tilt and long runs were at a premium as the Bulldogs suffered their second defeat of the season. Fighting in a game which, for all practical purposes, was to decide the conference championship, the Techmen went down 6-20, taking second place in the loop.

BASEBALL --- 1948-1949

After copping the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference pennant in 1948 for the fourth straight year, the Louisiana Tech baseball team seems slated for another season of top-notch performance.

Booked for eighteen games for the 1949 season, the Techmen have played three as this section goes to press. In an exhibition tilt with the Shreveport Sports, the Canines lost, 5-3. In an encounter with the Vicksburg Billies, the Techmen won, 9-8, but were nosed out in a follow-up game by a 4-1 defeat played at Vicksburg.

With nine returning lettermen and a large number of squad candidates, the Tech track team opened the 1948 season with a 103-20 victory here over Louisiana College. Following up their initial victory, the Techsters journeyed to Clinton, Miss., where they edged out the Mississippi College Choctaws by a $78\frac{1}{2}$ - $53\frac{1}{2}$ margin. After engaging in two tri-angular meets, in which they lost and won respectively, the Bulldogs took on the Demons, losing out in the final event, 60-67.

The final meeting of the year was the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference Track meet at Natchitoches, where Ray Booth, technically, won the track meet for the Southwestern team! With Southwestern holding a six-point lead over Northwestern but unable to place a finalist in the javelin throw, Booth made a record toss, giving Tech five points in that event and preventing Northwestern from obtaining enough points to win. Southwestern copped the victory and made Booth an honorary member in their letter club.

Beta Eta chapter of Beta Sigma Omicron began as a pledge colony at Louisiana Tech in February, 1947. The colony was formally installed into the sorority in May, 1947, by three national officers and representatives from chapters at Louisiana State University, Sophie Newcomb College and Howard College.

Beta Sigma Omicron was founded in Columbia, Missouri, on December 12, 1888, by Eulalie Hockaday Sneed, Maude Haines Bernardin, and Katherine Turner Spencer.

The principal national philanthropy is contributing to the support of the Pine Mountain settlement school in Harlan county, Kentucky. An award, the Bernadine diamond ring, is presented at the convention to the outstanding collegiate Beta Sig in the nation. The 1948 award was presented to Alice Cole, of Tech.

The Kappa Alpha Order was founded December 21, 1865 at Washington College, (now Washington and Lee University) Virginia. Although Kappa Alpha has a national status as a fraternity, it has never expanded above the Mason-Dixon line, and is often referred to as "the Fraternity of Southern Gentlemen."

The local chapter was formed at Tech as the Pentagon club, and was installed as Gamma Alpha chapter of Kappa Alpha on October 18, 1947.

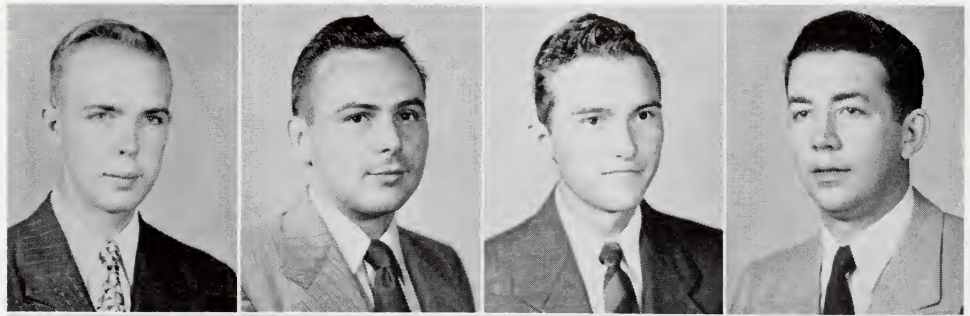

An important part of the philosophy of the Order is the conviction, carried out by the many charitable activities of the group, that men should be more concerned with what they can give than with what they can get.

The colors of the Order are crimson and old gold, and the flowers are the crimson rose and the magnolia blossom, the traditional flower of the South.

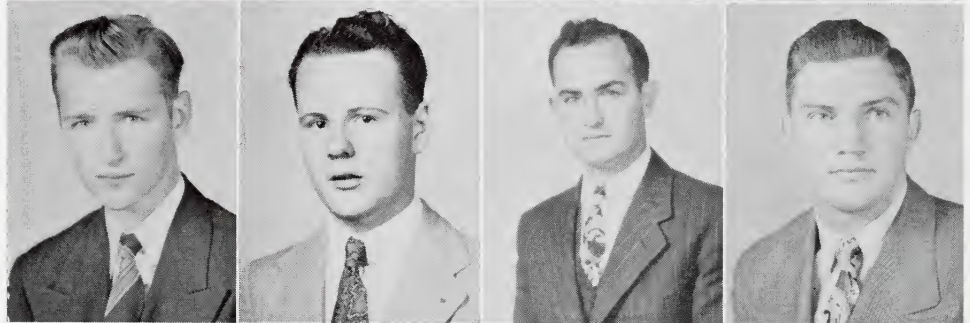

The "spiritual founder" of the fraternity is Robert E. Lee, and Kappa Alpha seeks to make a strong contribution to useful manhood by inculcating in young manhood those gifts and virtues that were embodied in the life of Robert E. Lee.

Kappa Delta sorority was founded on October 23, 1897, at Virginia State Normal College, Farmville, Virginia.

In 1927 one of the girl's organization on the campus became affiliated with Lambda Theta, and was later installed as Alpha Chi chapter of Kappa Delta on April 25, 1931.

Of the four original founders of Kappa Delta, two are living today and were present at the Fiftieth anniversary convention held at Virginia Beach, Virginia, in the summer of 1947.

The national group established as its anniversary gift a Kappa Delta research fellowship of $1,000 annually. The recipient of the fellowship need not be a member of Kappa Delta.

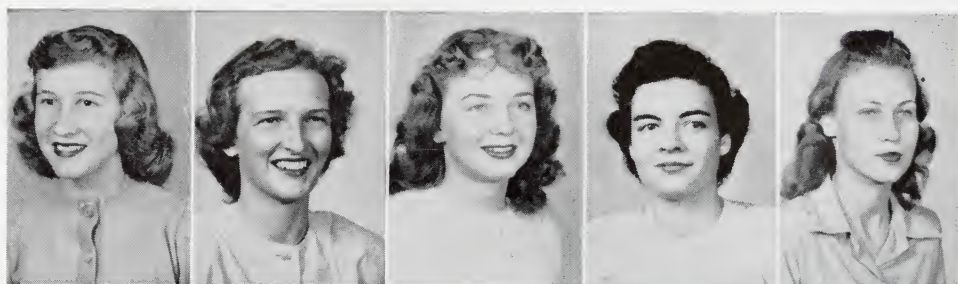

National Kappa Delta supports five beds in the Crippled Children's hospital, Richmond, Va. The local chapter's philanthropies include the support of a child in the Ruston orphanage and financial aid for spastic children in the Ruston area. The organization also sponsors a Brownie Scout troop in Ruston.

Sorority colors are olive green and pearl white; the rose is its flower.

The Kappa Sigma fraternity was founded December 10, 1869, at the University of Virginia. Stephen Alonzo Jackson, one of the early initiates, embodied in the ritual the early European tradition which takes Kappa Sigma back in spirit to the University of Bologna in the year 1400, when a mutual-protection society was founded by a group of students.

Kappa Sigma is composed today of 116 chapters, and is the third largest fraternity in the nation — in both number of active members and number of chapters.

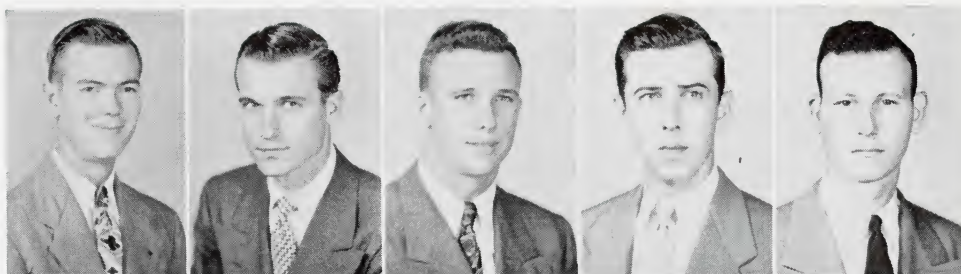

During the late '20's a local fraternity, Omega Kappa, functioned as a social group until a charter was granted by the national Kappa Sigma. The members of Omega Kappa became the Epsilon-Gamma chapter of Kappa Sigma in 1941.

A strong alumni chapter in Ruston contributes its support at all times to Epsilon Gamma.

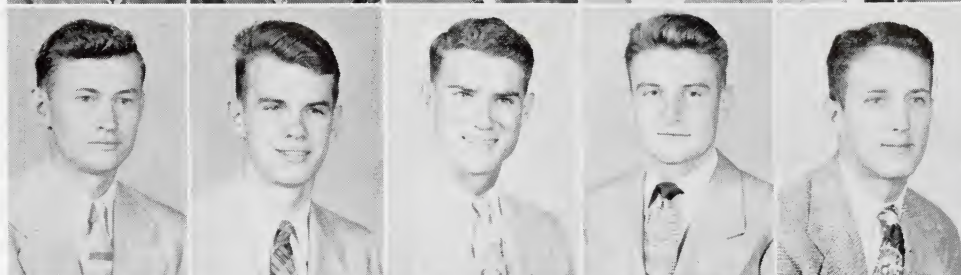

The two top photos were taken at the formal opening of the new Kappa Sigma frat house, which is shown at the bottom.

Pi Kappa Alpha was founded by six students on March 1, 1868, at the University of Virginia. At that time, the fraternity was open only to chapters formed in the South, but the New Orleans convention of 1909 extended membership to the entire nation.

The Esquire club was founded on the Tech campus by four students in 1936. S. A. Dickson, president of the club, was killed in a plane crash the following year, and the name of the group was changed to Sigma Alpha Delta — his initials in Greek letters — in his honor. In May, 1940, Sigma Alpha Delta became Gamma Psi chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha. At present there are about ninety undergraduate chapters of the fraternity in the nation.

Sigma Kappa was founded by five pioneering women students at Colby College, Waterville, Maine, in November, 1874.

Chapters have been placed only in four year colleges and universities of high standing. Sigma Kappa chapters today extend across the nation and Sigma Kappa strives to promote service, spiritual standards, cultural development, and high scholarship and intellectual standards among its members and alumnae.

The first emblem of the sorority was a ring; the second was a monogram, of which the present pledge pin is a replica. In 1894 the pin now worn by Sigma Kappas all over the world was adopted. The colors are lavender and maroon, and the violet is the sorority flower.

Some of the significant honors for the Beta Epsilon chapter at Tech during 1948-49 included the first place award in the homecoming parade for their "Orchids To The Team" homecoming float; a homecoming maid; a State Fair Maid; two cheerleaders; three members in Gamma Epsilon; two members in the Women's League, and one member elected as Treasurer of the Blue Jackets.

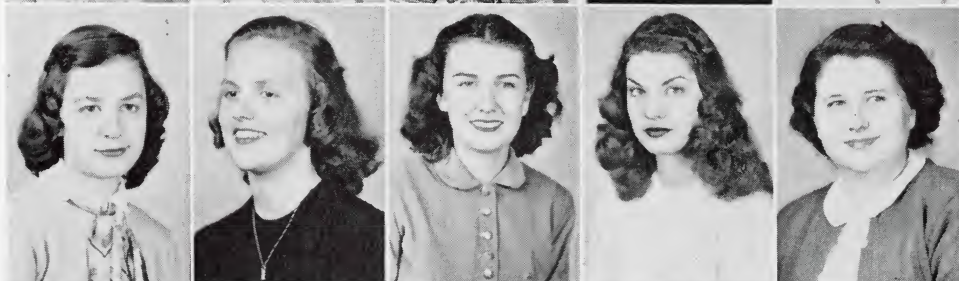

Sigma Kappa's national philanthropy is the Maine Sea Coast Mission, a national project since 1918. The local philanthropy consists of the support of an orphaned boy at the local Methodist orphanage.

Founded at Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington in 1899, Tau Kappa Epsilon celebrated its fiftieth anniversary on January 10 of this year. Tau Kappa Epsilon is now composed of sixty-eight chapters and is currently conducting an extensive expansion program. Another chapter was recently added with the installation of the Beta Phi chapter at Louisiana State University.

The local chapter had its beginning in 1898, and was recognized as Alpha Omega, a local fraternity, in 1901. The organization became Delta chapter of Alpha Lambda Tau in 1924; on April 11, 1947, that organization merged with Tau Kappa Epsilon.

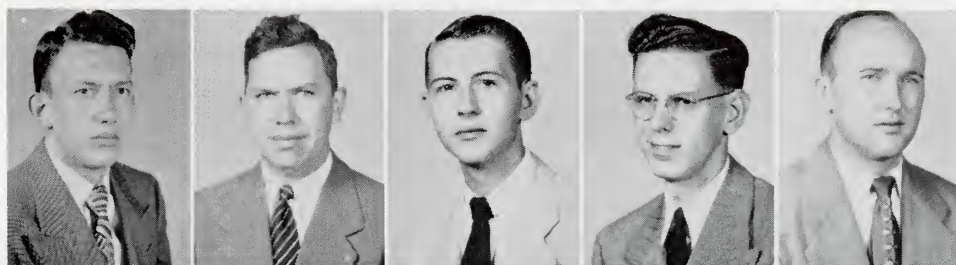

Fraternity colors are cherry and gray; the carnation is the official flower. In less than a year after the local group became affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon, two members achieved distinction in national affairs of the fraternity. Eddie B. Pohl was elected national travelling secretary and Dean W. L. Mitchell was appointed Grand Hypophetes (Chaplain) of the national organization.

Outstanding among the events of the year was the erection of a new chapter fraternity house at Tech.

Theta Upsilon began at the University of California at Berkeley in 1909 as a girl's club. On January 1, 1914, this group became Alpha Chapter of Theta Upsilon. Charter members adopted the Iris as their flower and yellow and white as their colors. The badge is a jewelled Theta superimposed upon a carved Upsilon. The pledge pin is a conventional silver iris.

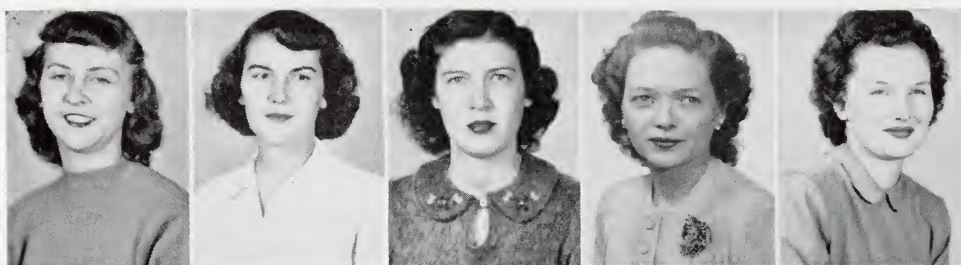

The Theta Upsilon publications are "The Dial," "Green Bay Tree," and "Laurel Leaves." The aims of Theta Upsilon are to establish a close friendship between the members, to stimulate the intellectual, social and spiritual life of the members, and to render services to others.

Theta Upsilon's national philanthropy is a fund maintained at Berea College, in Berea, Kentucky, to defray the expenses of necessary medical and dental aid to needy students. The local chapter's work is concerned with aid to the girls at the Methodist Orphanage located in Ruston.

The local chapter of Theta Upsilon was first formed at Louisiana Tech in 1926 as the LSC club. In 1927 this group became Tech's first sorority, Delta Phi Gamma, which was active on the campus for five years. In 1932 this group joined Theta Upsilon and became Psi chapter.

The Student Body Association was organized in the school year of 1937-38. The executive powers of the association are invested in the organization called the Student Senate. The officers of the Student Body are the officers of the Senate and are chosen by secret ballot in the spring of each year. The main purposes of the organization are to foster school spirit, to stimulate closer cooperation between the students and the faculty, to promote worthy projects in the interest of the entire student body, and to promote general student activities.

This organization is the voice of the students and its actions are therefore based upon the will of the majority of the student body. During the war years the Senate was not in full operation, and suffered, immediately after the war, from lack of interest and a lack of student knowledge concerning the possibilities and powers of the Senate. In the words of its 1948-49 members, "The Senate's main hope is to build a bigger and better Tech and to give the students a school they will be proud of in years to come."

The Tech Chemistry Club was organized in November of 1939 by ten charter members. Its purpose was to recognize outstanding scholastic achievement in the field of chemistry and to create and develop an interest in chemistry.

In November, 1940, the name of the organization was changed to Tau Chi Sigma. The fraternity was forced to go inactive in 1943 because of the war. Tau Chi Sigma was reactivated in 1948 with the same purposes that the founders had recognized. Since its reactivation the fraternity has expanded both in activities and membership. It is now seeking membership in one of the national honorary chemical fraternities. The group has programs covering the various fields in chemistry and the recent developments in these fields.

The Philharmonic Society was organized by L. V. E. Irvine, head of the Tech music department, in 1940. The society was created for the purpose of fostering ideals, practices, and policies indispensable to the successful maintenance of music as a profession.

The Philharmonic Society helped to create interest in a series of artists attractions, such as those now being sponsored by the L.T.C.A., by bringing the first major concert — the famous piano team of Fray and Braggiotti — to Howard Auditorium. This year as a major project, the Society sponsored the Charles L. Wagner Opera Company, which presented "The Barber of Seville" here on March 14.

The Louisiana Tech Engineers' Association is composed of students in the School of Engineering. It was formed in 1934 for the purposes of promoting interest in the school of Engineering and acquainting prospective students with the engineering school and the engineering profession.

The governing body is a council composed of twenty officers. There are four officers from each engineering department and four general officers who make up the council. The group is guided by a faculty advisor chosen by the students from the engineering staff.

The association sponsors the annual Engineers' Day held in the spring of each year.
